

LEONE D'ORO 2020/2021, competition rules:

Art. 1) Leone d' Oro is the develop of the first international competition born in the world:

"Leone d'Oro dei Mastri Oleari (1987)"

The aim of the award is to highlight the production of extra virgin olive oils of the highest health and organoleptic quality of all origins, stimulating and publicizing the commitment of companies to the improvement of product quality, promoting it in various specificities through appropriate actions at public and private institutions , trade and distribution professionals, as well as private consumers.

The Competition has been promoted and organized since 2016 by O'Live & Italy in the figure of Maria Paola Gabusi, president of the Cultural Association for the disclosure of quality and olive oil culture and Panel Leader of the Aipol2 professional tasting committee.

The Leone d'Oro aims to become the International Competition of reference for the strict rules and the professional method of evaluation of the organoleptic profile of the samples. The Aipol2 Panel of Brescia, which makes the selections for the Leone d'Oro is a professional Panel that tastes weekly throughout the year in accordance with the COI Method, uses an official Panel room and is recognized by the Mipaaf.

Art. 2) Admission is open to all the extra virgin olive oils that comply with the following requirements:

- the parameters of the IOC classification, of the last year of harvest
- from any country
- companies that have submitted, within the indicated deadlines, a regular application for participation.
- Samples have to be marketed and may be purchased through the normal distribution channels.
- The quantity of the homogeneous production lot must be declared for each type of oil presented (bottled or not)
- The bottles must be labeled in accordance with the rules of the country of origin, present the year of production, the batch and the expiry date

Art. 2B) The manufacturing companies agree to allow a representative of O'Live & Italy, at its sole discretion, to examine the regularity of the above, possibly also by visiting the company. to review the above regularity, even by visiting the company. The organization will choose 10 (ten) extra virgin olive oils from the finalists of each edition to evaluate by organoleptic analysis the correspondence of the samples sent with products (same specification sent) purchased in the market. The purchase can be made in company, specialized store or online. In case of marked irregularities, the oil will be disqualified.

Art. 3) category and awards The extra virgin olive oils will receive the award for the following categories, with a GOLDEN MEDAL, the so called LEONE D'ORO.

LEONE IN THE KITCHEN

The selection of the best cooking oils for restaurateurs and individuals.

We are looking for oils without fermentation or oxidation, organoleptically "clean", balanced, to promote them in restaurants or as cooking oils for families. Not "Champagne of the oil", but samples of extra virgin olive oil that Olive oil samples must necessarily be packed in cans or 3 or 5 liter bag in box to ensure greater stability over time. We know that olive cultivation is varied and we want to encourage and promote improvements at all levels of the product. The ranking will take care of the quality / price ratio. The selected samples may place the special seal (bollino/sticker) on the packaging.

Art. 4) The Company wishing to participate in the Competition must send 6 (six) containers of extra virgin olive oil in mixed sizes 250 and 500ml for the sample it intends to present (in the case of "One Leone in the Kitchen" only 1 - one - 3 or 5 liters), attaching the requested documents and sent by post or in person to the following address:

Maria Paola Gabusi - Via Firenze 10
25088 Toscolano Maderno (Bs) – Italia
